

Peace is Possible · Quick guide for hosts

Set up anywhere you normally gather. Use it in your own events.
Share what you learn so we can all learn together.

1

Start wherever you are drawn

Surviving, Living, Sustaining, Thriving. One is plenty. All four if you have the time.

Do your own reflection or read what others share.

2

Walk the rings

Me → We → Us → Beyond. What does peace feel like in each domain close in, and farther out. Your everyday, your neighborhood, your country, the world.

Beyond...

3

Capture & share

Draw or write on the poster. use markers or sticky notes. Print it to explore on a table or wall.

Send a photo of your finished piece to XXX.

Join in on Sept 22 or any day in October.

Download everything you need to host your own Peace is Possible event.

THE QUESTIONS

Curious questions to support your conversation

SURVIVING

This one's about having enough to feel okay — food, health, safety, water.

LIVING

This one's about being treated fairly, and belonging.

SUSTAINING

This one's about caring for what keeps us all alive — the land, water, and air.

THRIVING

This one's about building forward, together — good work, strong places, real partnership.

ME

What do you need, day to day, for peace to feel possible?

Where in your own life do you feel most free to be yourself?

What's one way you personally care for the earth that makes peace feel possible?

What would it take for you to truly thrive, not just get by?

WE

Who in your life or neighborhood is struggling just to get by, and what would make peace possible for them?

Where does your community fall short of fairness, and what would make belonging possible for everyone?

How is your community caring for, or struggling with, the land and water around it?

What could your community build together that would help everyone thrive?

US

Where in this region is survival still not guaranteed, and what would change that?

What would it take for everyone in this country to be treated with the same dignity?

What worries you most about how this state treats its land, air, or water, and what would make it right?

What would it take for opportunity to thrive across this whole region, not just some places?

Where in the world is survival hardest right now, and what do you wish for them?

What injustice, somewhere in the world, do you find hardest to look away from, and what would peace ask of us there?

What part of the natural world, anywhere on earth, do you most want protected?

What partnership or collaboration, anywhere in the world, gives you hope that peace is possible?
